

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION SCHOLARSHIPS 2009-2010

The Department of Communication offers the following academic scholarships to outstanding undergraduate students:

The Faculty Scholarship in Communication

Awarded to a promising undergraduate student who has declared a major in Communication and completed at least 30 hours with a 3.0 cumulative g.p.a. and a 3.0 in the departmental core.

Application must include at least one nomination letter from a Communication Dept. faculty member.

The Holt V. Spicer Scholarship

Recipient must be a full-time junior or senior Communication major with a 3.0 cumulative g.p.a.

The Russell Keeling Scholarship

Awarded to an undergraduate Communication major who demonstrates a commitment to public affairs and citizenship.

Application must include a 500-1000 word essay demonstrating your understanding of and commitment to using your college education as preparation for citizenship

The Donal and Vicki Stanton Scholarship

Awarded to an outstanding student majoring in Socio-political Communication.

The David L. Dollar Scholarship

Recipient must be a Missouri resident, full-time junior or senior Communication or Public Relations major with a 3.25 cumulative g.p.a. and preference for some demonstrated financial need.

Chris Sifford Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a communication or journalism major at the sophomore level or higher with a minimum g.p.a. of 3.0 with preference to students in these Missouri counties: Boone, Cole, Audrain, Callaway, Moniteau, Cooper, Howard and Randolph, Stoddard and Greene.

Complete applications MUST include:

Signed Application Form

Letter of Application

(Address to Department of Communication Scholarship Committee)

Any other materials specifically required for particular scholarships.

The application deadline for scholarship applications is March 1, 2009. Even though the University deadline for the FAFSA form is March 31, the COM department requests it to be by March 1. Scholarship application forms are available online at <http://communication.missouristate.edu/scholarships.htm> and in Craig 375. Letters of application should address your academic and career goals and explain why you are deserving of the scholarship(s) for which you are applying.